

Health Learning Journey Example A (Clinical Commissioning Group)

Webinars

Understanding Trauma: Introduction to Mending Hurts

Teaching type: Webinar delivered via Zoom (90 minutes)). Recorded and available for those who cannot attend live event.

Participants: Up to 100 managers from services working with 18-25 year olds commissioned by CCG

Purpose: To raise awareness and develop understanding about attachment behaviours, unregulated stress, trauma and resilience, and how Five to Thrive and Mending Hurts can support effective, connected relationships that promote recovery from trauma.

Community Resilience and Secondary Trauma: main training wellbeing in the workforce

Teaching type: Webinar delivered via Zoom (90 minutes)). Recorded and available for those who cannot attend live event.

Participants: Up to 100 managers from services working with 18-25 year olds commissioned by CCG

Purpose: To raise awareness and develop understanding about secondary trauma and how to promote resilience in the workforce.

Community Resilience and toxic stress: working with trauma across the lifespan

Teaching type: Online e learning course (available on KCA Connected) that learners encouraged to access following attendance at the webinars

Participants: up to 100 managers who have accessed webinar

Purpose: to support and build on the learning content from the webinars and support practitioners to reflect on the learning and apply it to practice

Community resilience and secondary trauma: maintaining well-being in the public service workforce

Teaching type: Online e learning course (available on KCA Connected) that learners encouraged to access following attendance at the webinar.

Participants: up to 100 managers who have accessed webinars

Purpose: to support and build on the learning content from the webinar and support practitioners to reflect on the learning and apply it to practice

E-learning

5 x
Web
tutorials

Webinar

E-learning

48 x
Web
tutorials

Understanding Trauma in Practice: reflecting on learning and applying to practice

Teaching type: Online interactive tutorial delivered via Zoom (90 minutes). Recorded and available for those who cannot attend live event.

Participants: Maximum of 25 frontline practitioners per event who have accessed webinar learning content

Purpose: to reflect on learning from webinar and e-learning, share practice and support application of learning to practice.

Understanding Trauma: Introduction to Mending Hurts

Teaching type: Webinar delivered via Zoom (90 minutes). Recorded and available for those who cannot attend live event.

Participants: Up to 500 frontline practitioners from services working with 18-25 year olds commissioned by CCG

Purpose: To raise awareness and develop understanding about attachment behaviours, unregulated stress, trauma and resilience, and how Five to Thrive and Mending Hurts can support effective, connected relationships that promote recovery from trauma.

Community Resilience and toxic stress: working with trauma across the lifespan

Teaching type: Online e learning course (available on KCA Connected) that learners encouraged to access following attendance at the Webinar.

Participants: up to 500 frontline practitioners who have accessed webinar

Purpose: to support and build on the learning content from the Webinar and support practitioners to reflect on the learning and apply it to practice

Understanding Trauma in Practice: reflecting on learning and applying to practice

Teaching type: Online interactive tutorial delivered via Zoom (90 minutes). Recorded and available for those who cannot attend live event.

Participants: Maximum of 25 frontline practitioners per event who have accessed webinar learning content

Purpose: To reflect on learning from webinar and e-learning, share practice and support application of learning to practice.